Leather and Lace (BWWM Interracial Romance) Sondra Wells

When Cassandra received the call about her father's sudden death, she left New York City and headed back to the ranch in Alabama where she grew up. Having been estranged from her father for years she had hoped to never return. Alabama was in her past and that was where she meant for it to stay. Her intentions were to quickly take care of the details of her father's estate, sell the ranch and return back to New York City where she belonged.

Matt, the sexy ranch foreman had other ideas. He was furious at Cassandra for trying to dump the ranch and fire all of the ranch hands. He didn't plan to make it easy on her to ditch her responsibilities and head back to New York.

Heated sparks fly between them but will it be enough to convince her to give up her life and everything she loves in New York City?
