A veterinarian in London, Faith is so impressed by an article written about ranch owner Raul that she takes a leap and flies straight to Argentina to meet him. But she isn't about to find him that easily, and ends up working on a ranch in an unfamiliar country and utterly alone. Then one day, when she saves a horse from dying, she has the most unexpected encounter. The handsome man dotting on said horse is none other than Raul himself! Faith is shocked enough as it is, but when he suddenly tells her, "You came all the way to see me? That sounds like a proclamation of love," and forces her into a deep kiss, it leaves her breathless.
