Becoming a pilot is a very costly affair, so budgeting is very important when it comes to flight training. There are many routes to become a pilot and each path has its own advantages and disadvantages. There are things that you need to know in order to lower the overall costs of achieving your goal of becoming a pilot. If you do not know these things you could pay $1000's more for your flight training in order to get your Private Pilots Licence (PPL) and Commercial Pilots License (CPL). This is very important especially if you are a self sponsored student. This is one of the major reasons why the pilot trainees drop out of flight training before they get their pilots licence.

In this special report, a retired veteran pilot with more than 40 years experience in the industry reveals the essential steps that you should follow to start your flying career with a minimum budget. Here you will discover;
