The rozabal line/chanakya's chant/the krishna key is a box-set that includes three bestselling books, namely, the rozabal line, chanakya's chant and the krishna key. All three are complete works of fiction but the characters in the book are taken from religious and mythological tales. These fast-paced novels are quite entertaining. The rozabal line/chanakya's chant/the krishna key box-set provides the readers with stories that use elements of mystery, intrigue and action. All three books are thrillers based on different religious and mythological characters. The stories have little to do with the facts that one can find in religious book. However, these tales make use of characters and mythological facts in a way that captivates the imagination. The first book, the rozabal line, tells the tale of how jesus travelled to kashmir and eventually passed away in the land of poetry and beauty. The second book, chanakya's chant, is set in the times of the great indian empire of the mauryas. This book is a political thriller, with the plot making a jump from ancient times to modern day india. The third and final book is the krishna key and focuses mainly on revealing the unknown secrets of the mahabharata and the vedic age. The rozabal line/chanakya's chant/the krishna key was published in 2012 by westland and all the books are available in paperback format. Key features: the gripping plotlines of these books keep readers in suspense and get them to question all that they know about indian history and mythology.
