Changing Kids' Behavior: A Parent's Survival Guide Rodney C. Greenwood

Parents are often faced with the question “What should I do?” when it comes to their children’s behavioral issues. Changing Kids’ Behavior takes a step back and answers the question “What can I do?”

This eBook illustrates 35 alternatives to the old standbys of spanking, grounding, and manipulation. Using evidence-based research, Changing Kids’ Behavior presents many different choices for parents when it comes to problems brought about by a child’s misbehavior. In simple, easy to understand language, this book enables parents to operate in a flexible, creative manner.

The techniques illustrated here are about teaching, rather than just disciplining, a child. A timesaver and valued parenting resource, Changing Kids’ Behavior explores the many different options when it comes to child rearing. Pragmatic in its approach, the eBook offers solutions to many of the otherwise confounding dilemmas faced by parents to create a healthy environment that allows the child to grow.
