Comforting the Bereaved -a selection of short talks for Christian Funeral officients Ian Bourne

Ian Bourne spent many years as Vicar of several parishes and was called upon to conduct many funerals. He considered this an opportunity to speak caringly to the grieving family and to remind them of the Christian hope of Eternal Life. There are here suitable talks for the funerals of children and young people, the elderly, people who died in accidents, some who took their own lives, some who died after a distressing illness. He also has included an account of his own convictions about life after death and he gives a full list of Scripture readings appropriate to various circumstances.
