That Thing Called Love Abi Kay

Isabel and Edward are great colleagues but the most unlikely of couples. Edward: the charming ladies' man, enigmatic, devilishly handsome and the best barrister around. Dowdy Isabel is obsessed with her job, but damn good at it, and seemingly content with her quiet life. That is, until a fire at Isabel's flat leads to her spending Christmas at Edward's family home, where they begin to see a different side to each other. After they do finally confess their feelings, any happiness is short lived, following a shocking revelation relating to Isabel's past. This unimaginable secret threatens their relationship before it has even begun, and forces Isabel to make the most difficult decision of her life.
