Political campaigns don't always go as planned...

Lach McKinnon, a former FBI Hostage Rescue Team Leader, was involved in a highly publicized and politically sensitive mission that went critically wrong. He has always taken responsibility for the three lives lost, though he keeps his guilt locked away. Becoming a team member of CSA has relieved him of similar assignments, however things haven't really been mundane.

Phoebe Dunaway is a United States Senator's daughter. She can be relied on to do what is expected of her. From raising her sister after their mother died to overseeing her mother's legacy foundation, Phoebe has steadfastly been the responsible one in the family. Now aiding her father in his quest for the presidency, she finally realizes that ignoring her own needs might not be in her best interests.

Lach is given a VIP Personal Security Detail — protect Phoebe from a potential threat against her father's bid for the White House. That's easier said than done when the attraction between them sets the path of the campaign down one of blazing desire. Unexpected danger lurks around every corner and Lach must face his past demons if he has any hope of keeping Phoebe safe.
