With her checkered past, Margaret Smith doesn't expect that she'll ever fall in love again. She's happy as she is, surrounded by good friends, but she still sometimes wonders if there isn't something more.

Career cowboy Wade Watkins loves nothing better than the wide-open spaces of the prairie, but when a chance encounter with a beautiful waitress sends her sprawling into the dirt, he begins to rethink his priorities.

One is coming to terms with her past. The other is looking for a door into his future.
