Face to Face: Analysis and Comparison of Facial Features to Authenticate Identities of People in Photographs Joelle Steele

"Face to Face" was written for anyone who relies on the accurate identification of people in photographs. This unique book is based on the author's 30+ years of knowledge and experience in the analysis of facial features in photographic format. It includes the basics of anthropometry and biometrics as adapted for use in the two-dimensional world of photography, and covers the anatomy, analysis, measurement, and comparison of the face and ears, as well as idiosyncratic traits and other identifying factors. It contains several sample face analyses, and also addresses post-mortem photographs, face modifications, surveillance photos, police sketches, faces as portrayed in art, handwriting on photos, and more. Includes extensive glossary and bibliography. This is the ebook version of the 2013 print edition, also available on amazon.com.
