"A Century of Silence - Echoes from a Massachusetts Landscape" follows the trials and tribulations of an Irish emigrant family in 1900s America. A true story, it chronicles the odyssey of author Mongan's own ill-fated paternal grand-uncle, who along with his six intrepid sisters, emigrated from Mullingar to Boston in the 1880s and totally lost contact with home. It traces the author's 20-year blow-by-blow quest to seek out the truth of their long-lost destinies in Boston, discovering his grand-uncle's tragic fate, and the harrowing human story of an Irish emigrant family who came face-to-face with a darker side of the American Dream. A reconnection with new-found present-day relatives brings this epic to a 'Happy End'.
