You're in your twenties - bright, articulate and effortlessly attractive - with stunning career prospects. You see the world through rose-tinted glasses. In fact, you're practically invincible.

Now try this: you're turning forty, your degree is gathering dust, your husband works long hours, your kids see you as a glorified domestic and you're not looking as youthful as once upon a time. In fact, what the hell just happened?

In the blink of an eye your life has been swept from beneath you as motherhood turned itself into martyrdom.

Your only lifeline is the Curry Club - where every week five friends come together to spice up their lives. From one bowl a curry is served, from another bowl five anonymous questions sit tightly folded until just one is drawn out for reading. Why? Because someone wants to know the answer.

Join the women as they discuss those things generally best left unsaid...

The Curry Club....Completely Confidential....
