The Water-Babies Charles Kingsley

In 1863 Kingsley's best-known work for children, The Water-Babies, came out in book form having earlier appeared serially in Macmillan's Magazine. This novel, a marvelous compendium of diverse material, tells the story of little Tom, the poor child chimney sweep who, reborn as a water-baby, experiences wonderful adventures in the company of real and imaginary creatures. Though it is an uneven novel, it is clearly Kingsley's masterpiece.

'The Water-Babies' has been published in countless editions, many being abridged or retold for younger readers so they too can enjoy the story. It is a fairytale from the Victorian age in England that has greatly influenced the works of many famous authors of children's stories. One such influence is Alice in Wonderland.
