Mel Harper is a woman in her twenties, searching for herself after experiencing the trauma of losing her parents three years ago. Through that tragedy, she meets Kevin who has grown to be her closest friend. Mel is suddenly troubled by vivid and peculiar dreams that seem to mean something. More disturbing and now tangible signs follow and she hesitantly confides in a mysterious man named Harry, as one of the few people she will tell. As if all that is happening to her isn't enough to manage, Wren enters Mel's life and immediately seizes her interest. Against Harry's advice, Mel courageously heads to California to suppress her curiosity about what all the signs mean, without knowing what waits for her there.
