The Real Thing Marne Davis Kellogg

Life has changed. The world has changed. Kick Keswick, the world's greatest jewel thief, has changed.

Kick is retired and settled into her comfortable Provencal life on her farm, La Petite Pomme. But when one of Paris's most exclusive jewelry stores is robbed for several million dollars worth of jewels and two security guards are killed in the heist, Kick's husband, Sir Thomas Curtis, head of the International Security Task Force, asks her to help.

Kick soon finds herself on a high-speed train ride to the Côte d'Azur tracking the ringleader of one of Europe's most dangerous gangs.

THE REAL THING is what happens just when you think you have everything in its perfect place and God steps in and clears the table.

Kick Keswick and her adventures are:

"Addictive"

—The Hollywood Reporter

"As delightful as a chocolate souffle."

—Booklist

"Delicious."

—Janet Evanovich

About the Author: Marne Davis Kellogg is the international, best-selling author of 11 mysteries, including the highly popular series of capers featuring Kick Keswick, the world's greatest jewel thief. In addition to her writing life, she is Executive Vice President of The Kellogg Organization, Inc. Marne and her husband, Peter, live in Denver and on their Colorado ranch in the summertime where she cooks the decadent meals found in her books. Marne and Peter visit England, France and Italy at least once a year where they research Kick and Thomas's environs to make certain they're as accurately portrayed as possible.
