Crochet Pattern - Easy Scarf Project Sarah Taylor

This crochet scarf looks like quite a complicated project, but is much easier to make than it looks and can be made by crocheters of all skill levels. The lattice work at the scarf ends adds an eye-catching and unusual style element to give a unique look to your outfit.

You will only need two 4 oz (100g) skeins of light worsted weight (double knitting/8ply) yarn (one of each color) to complete this project.

The finished scarf measures approximately 48" (122 cm) in length, and approximately 6½" (16.5 cm) wide along the main body of the scarf (it flares out wider than this at each end with the lattice pattern).
