Lendyn Hughes had everything she wanted. A family that welcomed her with open arms and a man who loved her as-is. So what if they were all vampires, love picked you not the other way round. Besides she was half vampire herself. One brief encounter. One wrong decision took it all away. Now Lendyn is trying to remember what in the world she's exactly doing in London, why she's back with her ex, where she got the bruises covering her ribs from and who the taunting voice in her head is. I'm sorry. Two words Callum never hated more. They were the two words he'd found on the Dear John note in Lendyn's room. With one breath she declared her love and in the next breath she left him. Now his future looks bleak without Lendyn to color the way.
