Losing a child is by far a parent's worst nightmare. It is the ultimate deprivation, the saddest and most agonizing trauma anyone can experience on this plane of existence, that day when heartache comes to visit. Three days after having an ominous dream, her daughter is found dead, undiscovered for days. Immediately following this news messages are sent to her sister and to others via dreams and psychic events. She realizes that her daughter is sending clues to her whereabouts in the afterlife as well as jarring factual information that no one could possibly have known, unless it came from her deceased daughter. It is a struggle for this mother to grasp the reality of what is happening as she is consumed by tortuous grief, barely having the will to continue living. Searching for that vehicle which will allow communication, she sets off on an amazing and courageous journey, at times trespassing into another realm that is taboo. Along the way intuition becomes her beacon and this mother stops at nothing to find out more about her daughter, unraveling simple yet mysterious communication from the beyond. Coping with her grief she experiences a strange new addiction, one she perceives is coming from the other side. Her daughter's spirit is incredibly strong, persistent in making herself known to many and retaining that same quick wit she had in life. In the end this mother's bold journey gives her an insight into powerful soul knowledge that few are blessed to receive. The two are eternally bound inspiring belief in those who question that death is the final frontier.
