My Daddy Was a Pistol, and I'm a Son of a Gun Lewis Grizzard

This is a very special memoir, an unabashed confession of first a boy's, then a man's love for his father. As Lewis says, "To love someone unconditionally-as I loved Daddy-is to remember nuances that made such an object of love unique and impossible to replace." He was a man of contradictions, of lusty appetites, of rare warmth. He was a charmer of men and women and a consummate con artist. A certified war hero and a shameless passer of bad checks.

Fans will love this funny and poignant memoir told as only Lewis Grizzard can.
