FAIRY TALES WITH A FREUDIAN FLAIR S. Joan Popek

A collection of fractured fairy tales for grown ups. Many fairy tale creatures are misunderstood and stereotyped as bad guys. Hey, they're not all bad. Take Ogres for instance, they have problems just like anybody else. Ogres need love too, you know. And how about that Goldilocks chick? Stick your tongue firmly in your cheek, and start reading this Collection Of Frivolous Fallacies right now! It'll tickle your fantasy bone all day. PS: Don't skip the preamble. Some say that's the best part.

The incredible cover is by Rita Toews, and a special thanks to Jianna Higgins for proofing, formatting and preparing this book for publication. Without both of these generous, wonderful ladies, you would not be able to enjoy this rollicking romp through Mother Goose's darker neighborhood. And wouldn't that have been a shame?
