Lost in Wilderness Prathibha Nair

When Sonia Gupta, a successful information technology professional at the peak of her career, finds out that she's pregnant, she has to choose between having a baby and advancing her career - a confounding decision that she feels is akin to choosing between her left and right eyes.

Academic and professional achiever Saroj Sachdev finds his past accomplishments of no utility when confronted with essaying the demanding role of a father to his newborn, and transforms inexplicably from a confident young man to a fumbling bundle of nerves in a month.

Lost in Wilderness is a collection of these and other stories - stories that involve ordinary young men and women who are bright adults leading normal, fulfilling lives but are ill-equipped to take on the real-life challenges of parenthood.
