Newcomer's Guide to Georgia Don O'Briant

Since the year 2000, over a million people have moved into the state of Georgia. The time seems right for a single source of essential information to aid these newcomers.

Newcomer's Guide to Georgia not only tells you about the taxes you'll have to pay, it tells you how to register your vehicles and how to obtain a license. It describes how the state government is set up and provides background about Georgia's colorful political history.

The book tells about the state's tourist attractions, historic sites, natural wonders, sports, mysteries, haunted places, and arts and food festivals. It also relates stories about Georgia's favorite sons such as R.E.M, Ray Charles, and Martin Luther King, Jr., and favorite daughters such as Margaret Mitchell, Flannery O'Connor, and Alice Walker.

Whether new to the state or a native, any Georgia resident will want the information in this one handy volume.
