Best of Jack London Jack London

Jack London is internationally acclaimed as one of the world's greatest outdoor adventure writer of all time. His most popular work is the novel, The Call of the Wild, but Jack London's short stories also capture the same spirit and high-level of talent that are so apparent in his writing style, and in his craft at storytelling. In the story, To Build a Fire, listen to what happens to a man and his dog in seventy-below zero weather in a land barren of any life but the snow and ice. Follow the life of a patient living in a mental hospital in Told in the Drooling Ward, and meet a colorful cast of characters along the way. Other stories include: A Piece of Steak, The Chinago, and The Shadow and the Flash. With a total of 22 short stories, and a cast of different readers for each story, this 8 cassette audio collection is custom made for high-quality entertainment, and specifically compiled with the best short stories from Jack London's repertoire. Guaranteed to be a fun and exciting audio experience, this magnificent 8 cassette collection is a perfect travel companion on the road, and can also be listened to in the home, while exercising, and anywhere you prefer to listen! Dive into Jack London's world of adventure, survival, and intrigue. The experiences are just about to begin!
